

Collaborative Approaches in Child and Adolescent Health

(2nd Mondays)

TL1 trainees are required to attend the Collaborative Approaches in Child and Adolescent Health monthly didactic seminars, featuring presenters speaking on a variety of topics as well as fellows sharing their research. Topics rotate each year; check out the 2021 seminars below.

Topic	Presenter(s)
Race, Ancestry, and the Structure of Human Populations	Adam Gordon
Transition to Independence	Evan Scott
Manuscript Submission Strategies: Getting Accepted and Recovering from Rejection	Susanna McColley & Evan Scott
Strategy and Tactics for Advancing your Career	Bill Miller
Sickle Cell Research	Kyle Mack
Medical Devices Commercialization and How to Assemble a "Pitch Deck"	Kaushik Ghosh
Operationalizing the Entrepreneurial Side of Research	Shad Thaxton
Overview of Mentoring	Kenzie Cameron
Team Science	Madison Hartstein, David Moskowitz, & Heather Risser
TL1 Symposium - COVID-19: Innovation and Evolution of Research in the Pandemic	Featuring 10 predoctoral and postdoctoral TL1 fellows from across the CTSA consortia
Early Phase (I/II) Clinical Trials	David Walterhouse
Industry, Educational, and Interactive Opportunities for Postdoctoral (or earlier) Trainees Interested in Drug and Device Development	Mohan Roa